Ladies Drill Team of Mystic Workers From Anamosa Here.

PEORIA WANTS THE NEXT SESSION

Likewise Freeport, Kalamazoo, and Davenport—Election of Officers Is Postponed—Public Drill This Evening.

There was a large attendance at the open meeting given by the Mystic Workers at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening. Hon. Jackson Smith gave an inspiring address on the order, devoting particular attention to the advantages derived from the co-operation of the ladies. The opening overture by Smith's orchestra as well as the intervening and closing numbers were much appreciated.

E. E. FITCH OF GALVA, ILL., CHAIRMAN OF DIRECTORS
lated. The Lyric Male Quartette was also accorded a hearty reception and both of the two numbers rendered were enthusiastically enjoyed. "Everyone was delighted with that quartette and we are thinking seriously of taking it home with us," said Editor J. R. Adams of the Mystic Worker this noon. A most delightful lecture on "Art," illustrated with stereopticon reproductions of world famous paintings and gorgeous views of Paris, the art centre of the world, was given by Mrs. B. F. Lichtenberg of Chicago. The speaker showed a rare appreciation of the pictures

Peoria Wants Next Session
The selection of the city that is to entertain the biennial session will be one of the important matters to be decided upon before the work here is completed—possibly not until Friday as the present outlook is for a longer session here than had been anticipated. C. H. Gray is on the ground to present the claims of Peoria with its lodge of 700 members, organized since the first of December. Davenport, Kalamazoo, Freeport and other cities are also mentioned but Peoria seems to have the inside track. If the latter city gets the convention Mr. Gray is prepared to promise a membership of 2,000 by 1906.

Some Presentations
In behalf of J. M. Goodell of the Fraternal Monitor a handsome gavel of cocobolo wood, elaborately decorated with ribbons was presented to the order by Supreme Secretary Jackson at the session yesterday afternoon.
Considered New Laws
This morning the session resolved itself into a committee of the whole to consider and vote on the adoption of certain changes in the laws regarding rates, the duration of and compensation for the various offices. The suggestions were offered by the laws committee consisting of Alex. McLean of Kewanee, Ill., J. M. Silm of Chillicothe, and R. F. Locke of Rockford reported a number of resolutions, the first of which was concerned with the death of the late Supreme Commander Robert S. Cowan. This was responded to with a rising acceptance. The report from the field manager to the effect that thus far in 1904 the number of new members added to the roll of the order was within 600 of the entire number added in 1903 was adopted with enthusiasm.

Praise the Committee
The delegates are loud in their praises of the reception they have had in Janesville and cannot say too much for committees from the Janesville lodge consisting of J. W. Boyce, Charles Wisch, O. S. Morse, J. M. Lynch, and others who have met every train and striven to their utmost to look after the comfort of each and every visitor. Last night the hotel accommodations in Janesville were taxed to the limit but none of the Mystic Workers suffered. The committee found accommodations for all in private homes, where it was necessary.

NEWS OF THE STATE IN BRIEF.

The Burnett Champion Dairy company has built a new cheese factory at Burnett Junction.
Nicholas Miller, while tearing down an old wooden building at Racine, found an old gun barrel with the words "Berlin, 1701."
The laying of the mains of the Algoma municipal electric light and water works plant has been completed, and after the final test was satisfactory.
The feature of the year in the commencement exercises at Kemper hall, Kenosha, was the presentation on Tuesday, by members of the senior class of the Greek play, "Alkestis."
Heavy loss by fire at Pewaukee was feared Monday night, when the residence of G. Miller was destroyed. The loss, however, was confined to the one building and will aggregate only $7,000.
George Bartol, a painter, fell forty feet from the stack of the Stevens Manufacturing company, at Marinette, upon John Roland, who was on the roof. The impact drove Roland through the solid roof and badly injured both of his legs. Bartol's leg was broken.

MARTIAL LAW BY ACTING OFFICIAL

General Bell Assumes Command of the Strike Stricken Territory.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Victor, Colo., June 8.—The Cripple Creek district was officially put under martial law at two o'clock this morning by General Bell, who arrived with a proclamation signed by acting Governor Haggott. Bell immediately assumed command of the troops and went in search of miners said to be gathering in force in the hills. The deportations are to continue to be a daily occurrence, it is announced, until every member of the Federation of Miners is sent into exile. Two companies of militia are on duty. Others are to be ordered in today if General Bell deems it necessary. Governor Doran of Victor, who resigned under pressure it is declared has recalled his resignation, and will hold an inquest over the bodies of the victims of the dynamite explosion. It is believed Doran will be turned and feathered if he persists in his determination to remain in office.

HOLD UP TRAIN: SECURE BOOTY

Bold Robbers Take Possession of the Valuables of the Rio Grande Train.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Denver, June 8.—A westbound Rio Grande train was held up near Palisade early this morning and brakeman Shellenberger seriously wounded. After flagging the train the robbers detached the engine and express car and ran ahead and blew open the safe. The express officials say the amount secured is small. Five men were concerned in the robbery. The express messenger refused to open the car and the robbers dynamited the door and forced the messenger to open the safe and secured one sealed bag from Salda said to contain gold. A sheriff's posse is in pursuit.

ARMED GUARDS AS TRAIN'S ESCORT

Departed Miners Brought to Denver in a Starving Condition.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Denver, June 8.—Under a guard of men armed with shotguns twenty-four of the deported union miners from Cripple Creek district exited since a serious riot in that section, arrived here on a special train early this morning. The men were met by members of the Miners' federation and taken to a restaurant. All are penniless. They declare Cripple Creek district is no longer safe for union men.

MINE EXPLODES: MANY ARE KILLED

Spanish Mine Blows Up, and Many Miners Lost Their Lives as a Result

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Madrid, June 8.—Twenty-five persons were killed in an explosion in a colliery at Melonderos this morning. Several dead were found at the mouth of the pit having been blown into the air. Several others are missing.

BANDITS SEIZE WIFE OF BRITISH SUBJECT

Armed Tribesmen Visit Tangier and Attempt to Carry Off Woman. But Flee When Help Comes.

Tangier, June 8.—The impudent daring of Moroccan bandits is by no means prevented by the steps taken to rescue Ion Perdicaris, the American, and his stepson, Mr. Varley, an Englishman, from the hands of the brigand Itasull.
Armed tribesmen of Anglora entered the home of an Englishman here while he was away, and seizing his wife, demanded arms and money. The woman, terrified, screamed and attracted the attention of neighbors, who hurried for the troops. This frightened the marauders and they left, taking with them several rifles and whatever other valuable plunder they could lay their hands on quickly. They were pursued but a short distance and made good their escape to the mountains.
The British consul demanded the arrest of the tribesmen, but the Moorish officials hesitated to pursue them because of their influence with the natives.
Foreign residents of Tangier, particularly those living in the suburbs, are terrified.
The situation of Perdicaris and Varley is practically unchanged, but news is expected in a short time from Fez, where the Sultan is at present. Mr. Perdicaris is quite ill.
The Sultan's subjects in Fez propose to give him a sum of money in order to avoid foreign intervention. If Raisulul learns that the authorities propose to break faith with him after he has released his captives, a dangerous situation may be created, as he has ample means of getting news. Reports of his conditions appear to be conjectural. Public opinion here is unanimously in favor of united action by European nations in order to check the growing anti-Christian feeling. Several persons recently have been stoned.
The British battleship Prince of Wales arrived and joined the United States squadron.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE.

Postmaster General Payne is going to Chicago where he will remain until after the republican national convention.
Minister Takahira of Japan and Baron Kaneko were the guests of the president at luncheon. Baron Kaneko is en route from Europe to Japan.
Baron Von Stuenkel, the German ambassador, officially took leave of Secretary Hay for the summer, as he leaves for Lenox, Mass., where he has taken a cottage until October.
The German Engineers' association, in session at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, has unanimously conferred the Grashof medal on Messrs. Parsons and DeLavel, the pioneers in turbine propulsion.
Colonel L. D. Drake of Boonville, Mo., was appointed superintendent of the Iowa industrial school for boys at Eldora, to succeed B. J. Miles, who resigned to accept a similar position with an institution at Washington, D. C.
Dr. George A. Harter of Delaware college, Newark, has received a telegram announcing that Charles Whitely Bush of Wilmington has passed the examination for admission to Oxford university, he having been the recipient of one of the Cecil Rhodes scholarships.

HAVE THE JAPS AT LAST BEATEN?

Report From the Far East Announces the Fall of Port Arthur This Morning.

NOT CONFIRMED AUTHORITATIVELY

Japs, It Is Known, Have Been Gaining Steady Victories and Advancing Nearer to the Promised Goal.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Home, June 8.—A dispatch received from Yinkow, Manchuria, this morning states an attack on Port Arthur has been proceeding since Saturday both from land and sea. It is asserted the fall of the fortress is imminent.

Go Close In
Tokio, June 8.—Four Japanese gunboats made a close reconnaissance of Port Arthur Monday for the purpose of examining the entrance to the harbor. They were exposed to severe cannonade. Gunboat No. 4 was hit eight times and sustained some damage. One sailor was killed and two wounded.

Sunk on Rocks
St. Petersburg, June 8.—Viceroy Alexieff today reports that on May 25th ten torpedo boats were sent out against the Japanese at Port Arthur and while returning one struck on the rocks and sank. The crew were saved.

Has It Fallen?
London, June 8.—The St. James Gazette says it is current on the stock exchange today that Port Arthur has fallen. It cannot be confirmed.

Same Report
London, June 8.—The Exchange Telegraph company also reports a rumor of the fall of Port Arthur and the report says the Japanese lost eleven thousand.

Vessel Lost
Paris, June 8.—A telegram from Sevastopol reports a serious explosion aboard the cruiser Smolensk. It is believed to be the result of a plot to destroy the ship.

Wireless Tells Russians Plans
Tokio, June 8.—A wireless message from Port Arthur, intercepted by the Japanese, shows that the Russians in Port Arthur and north of the Liaoting peninsula intend to act simultaneously. Gen. Kuropatkin attacking the Japanese on the peninsula in the hope of annihilating them before Gen. Kuraki can give aid. Another entire division, therefore, is being dispatched from Tokio, a part of which will be landed at Dalny and a part at Kichou.
Togo Clears Dalny Channel
Admiral Togo has succeeded in clearing the channel leading into Dalny. He began locating mines on June 3 and since then he has found and exploded forty-one. Tuesday a small steamer was able to safely enter the harbor. The work of locating other mines is now continuing, and it is expected that the vicinity will be speedily cleared of all such dangerous obstructions to navigation. Vice Admiral Togo reports that a southerly gale and a high sea prevailed during his operations, but the men steadfastly continued at their work.

Identify Russian Boat
Supplementary reports from the blockading forces indicate that the Russian gunboat which was sunk by a torpedo boat off Port Arthur on Saturday was of the Gremiaty type instead of the Giliak class.
Admiral Kataoka, commander of the third squadron, has reconnoitered San-shantao and Takuliao. The Chinese say that when the Russians abandoned Takuliao they poisoned the water sources. Admiral Kataoka is investigating the charge.

Russians in Ignorance
St. Petersburg, June 8.—The government, it is authoritatively said, has no more information than the public happens to have in the neighborhood of Port Arthur. The lack of official news from southern Liaoting was responsible for the usual number of rumors, among them the reports from Chofoo and elsewhere that the Russian squadron had made a sortie from Port Arthur and that the Japanese had begun a land attack upon the fortress. The general staff could neither confirm nor deny these stories any more than similar ones during the last forty-eight hours.

Actual Attack Still Remote
However, it was pointed out that while a preliminary shelling of the land defenses of Port Arthur was not improbable, it is too early to expect news of a serious assault which could not be pressed with any prospect of success until siege guns have been landed at Dalny, brought overland twenty miles, emplaced, and all the arduous preliminary work of a systematic advance against the outer works of Port Arthur completed.

PRISONERS NEED MEDICAL ADVICE

The Bandit Prisoners in Africa Must Have a Physician at Once.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Washington, June 8.—Admiral Chadwick cables the navy department from Tangier he has been informed that the captives, Perdicaris and Varley, are in urgent need of medical assistance. The bandit leader has been asked if a surgeon will be given safe conduct. A reply is expected tomorrow.

The state department is informed the Sultan of Morocco has responded to Raisulul's demand for a ransom of his two captives, but the department says it does not know the nature of the response.

GRAND RAPIDS EDITOR DENIES TAKING BRIDE

Eugene D. Conger Accords That He Spurned Offer of Money and Opposed the Water Deal.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 8.—The defense has begun in the conspiracy trial of Eugene D. Conger. Attorney Hawley declared that Conger had opposed the Lake Michigan water deal consistently in his paper, the Grand Rapids Herald. He asserted that the defense would show that Lunt K. Salisbury could not have paid the money he claims to have given Conger and C. S. Burch, because he took it himself.
Mr. Conger then took the stand, read editorials to show that the paper had opposed the deal and testified that his interview with Broker Ellis, who offered him $20,000 in bonds to support the deal, were for the purpose of getting information for his paper of the deal.
Mr. Conger testified that George L. Ellis approached him with the suggestion that there would be $10,000 in the Lake Michigan water deal for him, but he replied that he would not saddle such a contract on the city for $1,000,000.

Dr. Horace Ellis, president of the Idaho state normal, has accepted the offer of the presidency of Vincennes university.

LABOR LEADER IS MOST EMPHATIC

Thinks Governor Peabody Responsible for the Labor Conditions.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Washington, June 8.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor denounced in vigorous terms the methods of the Colorado authorities in dealing with the labor troubles in that state. "Governor Peabody," said Pres. Gompers, "has done more by his acts to provoke bitterness than all the other elements of Colorado combined. Acts, which outlaw himself, the highest officer in the state, present an unfortunate situation not surprising." He denounced the recent dynamite outrage but could not conceive it to be the work done by any organized body of men.

KILLED A NOTED SPANISH FIGHTER

Bull Fighting Game Not Approved of in St. Louis at Present.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
St. Louis, June 8.—Manuel Cervera, champion bull fighter of Spain, was shot in the heart and killed in a room in the Mozart flats by Capt. Carlton Bass, a matador, at noon today. It is alleged the murder grew out of the trouble over salaries. Both belong to a company brought here by the Norris Amusement company, whose bull ring was burned by a mob on Sunday.

RETURN FROM AUTOMOBILE JOURNEY TO CREAM CITY

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Dudley Made the Trip to Janesville in Four and a Half Hours.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Dudley returned last evening from an automobile trip to Milwaukee, on which they embarked last Sunday. They left the Cream city at half-past one and reached Janesville in time for supper at six o'clock. The roads were found to be in good condition and the cyclometer registered 90 miles, which was made in remarkably good time. A trip to Chicago to attend the reunion of the Rush Medical College alumni is contemplated in the near future.

CLASS NIGHT OF HAPPY SENIORS

EXERCISES AT THE HIGH SCHOOL
LAST EVENING.

SLY DRIVES AT THE FACULTY

Ware Features of the "Prophecy" and "Will"—These Were All Excellent.

Bunting of red and white, the colors of the class of 1904, was everywhere in evidence at the high school auditorium last evening. Over the stage had been swung the motto of the seniors—"Each for all, and all for each." A large and expectant audience was present when the opening number "The Crack of the Whip" was sounded by the high school orchestra. Charles Starr Atwood delivered the opening address. He welcomed his hearers to the Class Night exercises and expressed the appreciation of himself and class-mates of the generosity of taxpayers who have given the young men and women of Janesville such magnificent opportunities to mentally equip themselves for the struggle in the world. Jessie Scott delivered a most interesting and inspiring essay on the life, struggles, and triumph of Helen Keller, the deaf and blind girl whose determination to overcome almost insurmountable physical obstacles has aroused the admiration of the world.

The Cooper Hewitt Light
Victor L. Anderson exhibited the marvelous Cooper-Hewitt vacuum-tube light, explaining its construction and demonstrating by experiment the absence of red rays and other interesting phenomena. The lighting apparatus was loaned by the university and was operated by Mr. Arbutnot. The bluish white or green cast of light constitutes the principal objection to its use for practical purposes, and the speaker explained the means by which it is hoped to remedy this shortcoming. The exhibition and demonstration were both very interesting.

The Class History
George A. Scarelli spoke proudly of the high scholarship of the class of 1904, of its athletic prowess and triumphs in the literary field. Not only had its members captured the medals in both of these lines of endeavor but the spirit of pure athletics and true sportsmanlike conduct on field and track, inspired by Supt. Buell and Rev. Denison, had been first exemplified by those about to graduate. The speaker's gentle reference to those who fell by the wayside and were destined not to complete their high school courses, expressive of a hope and confidence that in the years to come many of them would be called to high stations in the world, was one of the strongest of the many beautiful sentiments expressed.

The Girls' Octette
The High School's Girls' Octette whose singing has been a delightful feature of many entertainments given under high school auspices this year sang "Come Kiss Your Mummy Good Night" and responded to an enthusiastic encore. The young ladies have acquired a perfect stage presence and their voices are admirably blended. The members of this unique organization are: Misses Emma MacLean, Gladys Heddles, Clara Jones, Pearl Peters, Adah Longley, Roberta Keller, Grace Winthrop, and Lucy Fox.

Stereoscopic Lectures
Following the musical selection Ida M. Morse gave a very instructive thesis on "The Sun." With the aid of stereoscopic slides her hearers were enabled to study the great molten mass, the eruptions which produce the "sun spots," and the great storms which sweep over its surface, at close range. The announcement of Frank W. Fisher's declamation, "The Execution of Sidney Carton," was received with cheers. The interpretation was a finished one, voice and action and feeling displayed showing a perfect conception of the tragic episode. Clara D. Erickson's illustrated thesis on "Forestry" showed much investigation and a good command of the facts relating to the subject which is coming to be regarded as more and more important every day. Julia L. Austin's thesis "A Model House" was a timely exposition of a timely subject. The mysteries of plumbing and heating, the right kind of flooring, and suitable color schemes in decoration all received her attention and intending housekeepers were given much food for reflection.

The Class Will
With a voice, clear and sweet as the real echoes of the spring, and with remarkable expression, Miss Besse Burch sang Cowen's beautiful little song of "The Swallows." After she had responded to an encore, Clarence Van Bynum in the role of Mark Antony appeared on the platform to deliver his oration over the dead body of 1904. He carried under his arm an enormous roll of manuscript—the will of the deceased. The speaker's frequent reference to his mission to "bury 1904, not to praise her" and the honorable men and women in faculty and school with all shades of intonation on the "honorable" provoked continued outbursts of laughter. After many "drives" concealed under the mask of grandiloquent language had been delivered he opened the last will and testament. Everyone from Supt. Buell down was the victim of some bequest and several members of the faculty were seen to fairly writhe under the whip of the jester. Romance was dragged out into the limelight and none guilty escaped unscathed. The audience, with the exception of the few who were hard hit, hugely enjoyed this remarkable contribution.

Peem and Prophecy
Following a rendition of "The Dance of the Fairies" by the Octette, which called for an encore, the curtain was raised on a woodland scene where huge snakes coiled about the trees and other objects calculated to

All the spectator with awe were in evidence. Presently the prophetic sly, Miss Mary J. Gosselin, appeared upon the scene and began the incantations necessary as a prelude to revealing the details of her class-mates. In the midst of these she was addressed in verse by Miss Ada Buckmaster, and after the latter had told of the glorious accomplishments of the class in a poem, the unwinding of the scroll of fate began. The future was revealed on leaves plucked from a neighboring bush and by some accident two of them, containing the fates of a like number of faculty members had become entangled. This necessitated detailed explanations on the part of the sly and she made them with a wicked delight which caused a great roar of merriment. The whole scene and dialogue was very cleverly contrived and proved to be one of the most attractive features of the program. The orchestra played the closing number.

TERRIBLE DEATH IN THE DARKNESS

Overtook Henry Cantwell as He Was Walking Through the St. Paul Railroad Yards Last Night.

Sudden and terrible death overtook Henry Cantwell in the St. Paul railroad yards while he was on his way to his Western avenue home last evening. His mangled body was first discovered late in the evening by Richard Barry, a brakeman, as the latter was walking down the track to his home on Gold street. Believing the man was asleep he tried to arouse him and then struck a light to discover that it was the sleep from which there is no awakening. The legs and arms were found to be terribly mangled and there was a deep gash in the head. The ambulance was called and the remains taken to Kimball's morgue. The unfortunate man is believed to have been struck down by a switch engine backing out of the roundhouse. He was employed as a helper at the New Doty works and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

Great Circus Parade, Notify George M. McKee.

George McKee, one of the famous brothers of the None Such Brothers' circus, announces that all persons who will arrange exhibits for the great and old show on its annual visit to Janesville will please notify him at once. The parade promises more new features and better and more interesting list of attractions than ever before and it now remains for the individual exhibitors to prepare their attractions. It is essential that the persons who will arrange for exhibits notify Mr. McKee at once.

W. C. T. U. LADIES VISIT HARMONY

Were Entertained by the Ladies of the Harmony Organization
Last Evening.

Ten ladies of the Janesville W. C. T. U. organization went to Harmony yesterday where they were the guests of Mrs. Betts at the regular meeting of the Harmony organization. The Janesville ladies drove out in a car and after a delightful afternoon meeting were served with a delicious luncheon and drove back to the city in the early evening. They report the work in Harmony as very good and that fifty ladies were present at the meeting.

UNIVERSITY HAS GAY CELEBRATION

President Van Hise is Made President with Impressive Ceremonies.

Madison, Wis.—Dr. Charles Richard Van Hise was formally inaugurated yesterday as president of the University of Wisconsin. It was the third day of the Wisconsin semi-centennial jubilee celebration and the feature was the inauguration ceremony of the new president.

In his inauguration address, President Van Hise reviewed the history and growth of the institution from the time of its first commencement 50 years ago, when two graduates comprised the finishing class and the staff of instruction consisted of three professors and one tutor, the total attendance at the university numbering only 35.

"The catalogue of the present year," he said, "shows an attendance of 3,150 students, an instructional force of 226, which this commencement there will be conferred in course 361 degrees, of which 334 are baccalaureate, 17 master and ten doctors of philosophy. If we contrast these numbers with those of fifty years ago, an instructional force of four, 35 students and two baccalaureate graduates, it is surprising that we should cry: 'And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, a jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you? With our joyfulness there is a profound feeling of thankfulness, the state that has had the wisdom to be guided by men of such breadth of view as to provide liberally for the education of the children of the state and all others who care to share its educational hospitality, from the more remote parts of the United States, and from other countries too.

"While the achievements during the past fifty years are sufficiently great to celebrate, the ideal of the university is more worthy of celebration, a score of years ago it could not have been said of any state in America, that it had shown willingness to support a university of the highest class, but now several state institutions are recognized as standing in the first group among American universities. These institutions are mainly supported through taxation imposed by a democracy upon itself, for the sons and daughters of the state, poor and rich alike, until this movement of the state universities had eliminated the advantages of all educational institutions of the highest rank in all countries had been restricted to one sex. Even now it is practically impossible to enter the doors of many. In state institutions, where education is maintained by the people for the good of the state, no restriction as to class or sex is possible. A state university can only permanently succeed by being open to all of both sexes, who possess sufficient intellectual endowment, the financial terms so easy that the industrious poor may find a way, and the student sentiment such that each stands upon equal footing with all. This is the state university ideal, and this is a new thing in the world.

"The older universities of America have developed from small colleges. The earlier colleges of the United States were modeled on Oxford and Cambridge. If the University of Wisconsin is to do for the sons of the state what Oxford and Cambridge are doing for the sons of England, it is to do even what the eastern institutions are accomplishing for their students, not only in producing scholars and investigators, but in making men, it must once more have halls of residence and to these must be added commons and a union. At the common the men meet one another each day; at the union they adjourn for clubs, wholesome social intercourse. The union should be a comfortable and beautiful building, comfortably, even artistically, furnished. When the students are done in the evening, the attractive union is at hand, where refreshments may be had, and a pleasant hour may be spent in games, with the magazines, in a novel, or in social chat. The course attractions of the town have little attractions in comparison. But, to build adequate halls of residence, commons and union, will require large sums of money. What more fitting thing for wealthy men of the state, who have gained their riches by taking advantage of its natural resources, than to return back to the state some portion of their wealth for this most pressing need? In no way can a man leave a more appropriate and permanent monument for himself than by building a hall of residence, a common, or a union."

President Van Hise then developed the idea of the value of independent research, such as is done in the graduate study departments of the universities and at such an institution as Johns Hopkins, and continued:

"We are now able to suggest the ideal American university, one which has the best features of the English systems, commons and unions; one which includes the liberal and fine arts and the American additions of science and applied science and one which superimposes upon these an advanced school modeled upon the German universities, but with a broader scope. In such a university the student in the college of liberal and fine arts has opportunity to elect work in applied science, and thus broaden his education. He feels the inspiring influence of scholarship and research, and thus gains the enthusiasm for the elementary work because it leads to the heights. My faith is such that I look forward with confidence to the future, with profound conviction that the breadth of wisdom, which has enabled this institution to grow from small beginnings to its present magnitude, will continue to guide the state, until a university is built as broad as human endeavor, as high as human aspirations."

TAILOR MODEL IN SHEPHERD'S CHECK

The little shepherd's checks and plaids are still in as great vogue as before, and are a favored design for spring and early summer wear. The model in mohair represents a tailored coat suit, white cloth edged with a black and gold soutache and dotted with black velvet buttons being cleverly used for relief effect on the little coat. This is fashioned to conform more closely to the lines of the figure than most recent models have done, is rather short in the back and coming to the front with very marked slope. The shoulder is extended to form a shallow sleeve cap, the sleeve itself being full throughout with a puff above the wrist, and with fingerette ruffles garnishing the loose cuff. The skirt has the necessary shallow darts over the hips, thus assuring the desired flatness below the waistline and the flowing lines which characterize the newer modes. The broad hem is faced with a band of black velvet, applied by hand, this giving weight to the skirt and assuring the shiny shoes from rubbing.

OLD FOGY GIVES FIGURES STATED

GOES FARTHER THAN HE PROM-ISED WITH LIST.

INCLUDES THE FIREMEN ALSO

Makes No Comment on the Situation—Lets Figures Talk for Themselves.

To the Editor: I am taking up a subject this time that has been much talked of in the past but has ended in the talk. That of increasing the number of wards in the city and thus giving us a better representation on the county board. The importance of such a move is apparent to those who have watched the dealings of the county board in the past and know the manner in which Janesville is placed at a disadvantage when matters which are vital to the city's interest come up for a vote. Janesville is big enough to have two more wards at least and this would give us a better representation on their board. Cities no bigger than Janesville have more wards than this city, and Beloit, which lacks considerable of being as large as the lower City, has the same representation on the board as we have. This is a matter that can be investigated and should be carefully looked up by those who look out for the best interest of the community.

The Police Question
Sometime ago I promised to give the public a table regarding the approximate strength of the police department of this city and of other cities of the same size in the United States. In doing so I find that the table I obtained through the kindness of a friend also contains the list of firemen as well. This makes it doubly interesting and I append it to the article without comment. Figures talk for themselves louder than any arguments of mine:

Fireman Geo. S. Woodruff of the North Wisconsin division is taking a few days lay off.

Fireman F. H. Storm, was laid off last evening for a few days.

Fireman F. H. Storm laid off is visiting his parents at Watertown.

Workmen are making necessary repairs to the carpenter shops at the Chicago & Northwestern yards. A complete new foundation is being put under the entire building.

Several bad order cars in the Chicago & Northwestern yards are undergoing repairs.

The gates at the different railroad crossings and the switches are being painted today.

The Italian laborer who was hurt on Memorial day while at work on the spur track being put in at the Rock County Sugar Co. factory was released from the Palmer hospital today.

Engineer Chas. Selmore is off duty on account of sickness.

Fireman H. A. Donner, is visiting relatives at Johnsons Creek for a few days.

Engineer A. R. Gridley is taking a few days vacation.

Engineer D. R. Dunwiddie is confined to the house by illness.

Conductors and brakemen of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road have received notices to purchase new uniforms, the design of which has been designed by the company.

All uniforms must be ordered through the superintendents. They must be of blue cloth with brass buttons. Of course the conductors and brakemen must pay for the suits. Passenger conductors are required to wear their uniforms when on duty and they must be neat and presentable. They must wear clean linen and have their shoes polished and the conductors are required to see that their trainmen present a neat appearance.

The Wisconsin & Michigan railroad, controlled by John R. Walsh of Chicago and operated by J. N. Fathorn of the Chicago Terminal and the Alton railroads, is preparing to battle for the lion's share of the ore carrying traffic of the Mononoke range. The company expects to be able to do this by the construction of mammoth carteries which will be able to carry the largest train loads of ore from Peshigo Harbor to Chicago and Milwaukee, and eventually to Buffalo and other ports 700 or 800 miles distant from Peshigo.

It is understood that these ferries will be placed in commission within a few months and will be so constructed as to be capable of operation the year round. The railroad company is now constructing tracks to the various mines in the district, and will shortly extend its main line from the present terminus at Quinnesec to Iron Mountain, where it will reach valuable mining properties. If the plan carries the Wisconsin & Michigan will be able to reduce the cost of ore transportation by fully 50 per cent. The use of the big ferries will obviate the necessity of numerous ore docks and will do away with labor loading.

Important changes in the passenger department of the Rock Island system are announced. The jurisdiction of L. M. Allen, general passenger agent of the Rock Island railway, has been extended over the St. Louis, Kansas City & Colorado railroad, Assistant General Passenger Agent W. J. Lenhy's jurisdiction, also is extended over the new line, and he will move his headquarters from Chicago to St. Louis. The Rock Island's passenger interests in St. Louis have been in charge of A. Hilton, general passenger agent of the Frisco.

Notwithstanding the strike of the masters and pilots, which has tied up the lake traffic and compels all shipments from lake ports to be made by the all rail lines, the latter are not doing as large a business as they should under the circumstances. Shipments from Chicago to the east last week suffered a decrease in both grain and flour as compared with the week previous, but were far ahead of last year's shipments.

The preliminary arrangements for extending the Burlington railroad from Kansas City to the Gulf of Mexico have progressed to a point where the final location and actual construction of the road will soon be begun. The new line will, for a considerable distance, traverse the same territory, which was to have been covered by the Rock Island's proposed extension to Galveston.

The Chronic Kicker
Did you ever notice that the man who does the most of the kicking is the least injured or interested? The fellow who is always finding complaints about the mails at the post-office is in luck to get a circular once a month. The kicker who says the telephone service is rotten never paid a penny toward the support of the plant. The hypocrite who grows because his feet get cold in church never furnished even a splinter to kindle the opera house and yells the show is rotten gets in on a ticket given him for allowing lithographs to be placed in his window. It's the same in every public institution, satisfactory to every one except those who haven't any more right to kick than to expect to get a heaven on their wife's religion.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS.

The foreign trade in iron and steel will show in the fiscal year which ends with the present month a marked contrast compared with that of last year. The imports of iron and steel in the fiscal year 1903 were the largest since 1891, and with the exception of that single year, the largest since 1881. In the fiscal year

1901 they will be but about one-half those of 1903. During the ten months ending with April last the total imports amounted to but $23,075,081, as compared with $43,332,714 in the period of last year. In practically all articles of iron and steel imported there has been a marked reduction both in quantity and value as compared with 1903, but this is most strongly marked in pig iron, which alone shows a reduction of more than 10 million dollars, while steel ingots, and bars show a reduction of 5 millions.

On the other hand, exports of iron and steel show a material increase.

In the ten months ending with April,

1904, the total exports of iron and steel, as shown by the reports of the Department of Commerce and Labor

through its Bureau of Statistics, amount to $39,091,115 against $79,-

$39,462 in the corresponding months of the preceding year—an increase of nearly 11 million dollars; while the single month of April shows an increase of about one and a half millions as compared with April, 1903.

This suggests that the exports of iron and steel in the full fiscal year will considerably exceed 100 million dollars, though it is hardly probable that they will reach the figures of 1901, when the total was 117 millions, or of 1900, when the total was 122 millions.

These figures indicate that the United States, under a wise protective tariff, is rapidly reaching a point where the home market is being carried for by home production. With our vast mineral resources, there is no reason why the nation should import either iron or steel. Every ton of ore that is mined and marketed at home, means employment to American labor. The steel mills of the country should furnish all the steel that the nation uses, and there is no reason why they can not do so. The home market is always the best market.

WEALTH OF THE NATION

So much is said now-a-days about the wealth of the nation being in the hands of a few individuals, and so many people seem possessed of the notion that a few multi-millionaires have absorbed the capital of the country, that it is refreshing to note

a few figures on the resources of a single western state, and this is a state which has grown from a population of less than 15,000 in 1850 to a population of 1,500,000 in 1904. During these years the resources of the state have developed in proportion. In 1850, it produced 276,000 bushels of grain, and in 1900 over 64,000,000 bushels. Its manufactures have grown from $2,250,000 in 1850 to $200,- 000,000 in 1901. It now annually adds to the Nation's store of wealth $70,- 000,000 in gold, silver, copper, and lead.

This is the State of Oregon, which next year is to celebrate the centenennial exploration of the western country by Captain Lewis and Clark, commanding a government expedition, commissioned by President Jefferson.

The Oregon of today is an object lesson for the world. It shows what can be done with American thrift and enterprise and it also demonstrates that the wealth of the nation is with the masses, and may become the property of the people. The following figures are of interest as pertaining to this progressive state:

"Value of the standing timber at an average price of $12 per thousand feet for lumber, $2,000,000,000; foreign commerce, $12,000,000 a year; exports of breadstuffs in 1903, $8,668,549; government and state lands open for settlement, 23,350,000 acres; output of dairies, $3,500,000 a year; annual production of hops, 15,000,000 bushels;

value of poultry and eggs, $1,250,000;

value of live stock, $34,000,000; value of manufacturing output, $34,000,000 a year; output of fisheries, $3,000,- 000 a year; value of orchard products,

$3,000,000 a year; product of mines,

$5,000,000 a year.

"Portland, the principal city of Oregon is shown to have a population of 125,000 as against 821 in 1850. Its jobbing trade amounts to $75,000,000 a year, and its manufactures to $49,-

500,000. Since 1900, it has erected nearly $10,000,000 worth of new buildings. It has 163½ miles of electric street car lines and annually cuts

400,000,000 feet of lumber. Its bank deposits amount to $35,000,000.

Eight large steamships aggregating

50,000 tons, ply between its wharves and the Oriental ports.

"One of the principal purposes of the Lewis and Clark Exposition is to bring the United States and the Oriental countries into closer trade relations. If Asia and Oceania would buy for each inhabitant as little as half a cent's worth of goods per day from Uncle Sam, the foreign exports of the United States would increase to the extent of $1,250,000 per day, and $1,551,250,000 per year."

A little booklet entitled "Oregon," finely illustrated and descriptive of this wonderful state, has just been issued by Henry E. Reed, Secretary,

Stearns building, Portland, Oregon, which may be had free of charge for the asking. It is well worth reading, and it suggests to young men, as well as others, who have an ambition to better their conditions, that the prizes of life are still open to competition, and within the grasp of intelligent ambition.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE.

The Cripple Creek mining trouble started last August, over the refusal of mine owners to grant an eight-hour labor day, culminated last Monday in an explosion, at a little mining station, which resulted in killing and maiming 50 non-union workmen.

Who is responsible? If capital, then the Cripple Creek mining district had better be abandoned for all time. If organized labor, then the organization should be disbanded without delay. If both, then in the name of humanity get together on some basis that will at least guarantee protection to human life.

The Cripple Creek disturbances have disgraced the industrial world and made the state a by-word. The governor seems powerless to cope with the situation and a reign of terror has long existed, which has no parallel in this country.

Martial law is powerless and murder, under the guise of defending principles is the order of the day.

If Colorado has reached a point where self government is no longer possible, the state had better surrender her charter, and return to territorial supervision.

The right of any and every man to labor, in this free land, is a God-given right. It is more than this, for the privilege carries with it a divine command.

The State of Colorado as well as every other state, should protect her citizens in the exercise of this right, and this protection should be so effective that absolute safety would be guaranteed.

The dynamite boom, which caused the death of innocent citizens, means more than a blot upon the state where the dastardly deed was perpetrated. It is a menace to civilization, and belongs to the dark ages.

Time will be required to adjust the differences between capital and labor, but no time should be lost in placing the seal of disapproval upon the Cripple Creek tragedy, and in a manner that will forever prevent its recurrence.

HOLD TO THE RIGHT.

The fraternal organization, known as the Mystic Workers, has for its motto this terse command: "Hold to the right." That the order attempts to observe the injunction is impressed upon every member, and the spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm manifest, indicates that the letter, as

FORTY VISITING DENTISTS HERE

TO ATTEND TENTH SESSION OF SOUTHERN STATE SOCIETY.

MANY MORE ARE EXPECTED

To Arrive Within Next Twelve Hours—Morning Devoted to Miscellaneous Business.

Doctors of Dentistry, forty in number, arrived in Janesville this morning to participate in the annual meeting of the Southern Wisconsin Dental Society. It was expected that the number would be increased to seventy-five this afternoon and to one hundred and twenty-five or more by evening. President R. J. Hart of Janesville welcomed the visitors in the assembly room of the city hall and the morning was devoted to routine business such as the reading of minutes and reports. The reception committee consisting of Ira M. Holsapple, J. Whitten, and G. B. Thuermer met the visitors at the depot.

Papers This Afternoon
Papers were read this afternoon by George C. Marlow and R. C. Brophy. Dr. Tichnor read a paper on "The Treatment of Pyorrhea," supplemented by a clinic. "The Use of Cocaine in the Painful Removal of Impacted Teeth," by Dr. C. E. Bartholomew. Dr. G. B. Thuermer discussed "The X-Ray" and Dr. J. H. Soule of Phillips, Wis., read a paper on "Dental Hygiene of Mothers and Their Offspring As It Should Be Practiced Today."

The Evening Program
This evening there will be a lantern exhibit on Orthodontia cases by Dr. M. A. Federle, a similar exhibit on "Experimental Root Filling" by Dr. M. J. Hanaford, and Dr. Charles J. Sowle of Rockford will give a number of recitations and songs. The assembly room at the city hall has been fitted out with a number of dental chairs and resembles one big operating room.

ALL READY FOR THE NEXT YEAR

High School Athletic Association Has Chosen Its Officers, and Captains Are Elected.

George Sennett was elected president of the Athletic association of the high school; George Caldwell, vice president; John Galbraith, secretary; and Walter Carle, treasurer, at the final meeting for the year held this week. Floyd Davis is to captain the track team next year. Walter Carle will be in charge of the destinies of the football squad, and George Sennett will lead the basketball team to victory—it is hoped. William Tallman, for winning first place in the high hurdles in the dual meet with Evansville, has been awarded the "J." Only those who win firsts in a track meet or play in two-thirds of the games with a team that wins two-thirds of its contests are entitled to this honor. Harold Myers has won this honor nearly a dozen times and wears the best earned "J." in the school. With Mr. Norris as coach and manager the finances of the association are in the best condition they have ever been.

HELP BROT HEAD WITH TEAM WORK

Twelve Janesville Masons Went to Brodhead Last Evening On a Visit.

Twelve Janesville members of the Masonic order of the city were the guests of the Brodhead chapter last evening. They were invited to come to Brodhead to put through a team and left on the evening train and returned on the eleven o'clock freight, the train being held in Brodhead for them to allow them to make connections. The Janesville party consisted of C. B. Evans, W. H. Merritt, N. M. Dudley, John McVicar, William Farmer, John Lloyd, A. P. Lee, G. H. Drummond, H. L. McNamara, Eugene Fish and J. E. Gregory. The visitors reported that they were royally entertained and that the Brodhead chapter is in a most flourishing condition.

PRIVATE FUNERAL SERVICES HELD

Rev. R. C. Denison Conducted Private Services at Palmer Memorial Hospital This Afternoon.

BROKE HIS HAND IN A BAD FALL

Dr. Eddon Suffers a Painful Accident While Visiting in North Fond du Lac.

Dr. Eddon is suffering from a broken hand as the result of a fall in North Fond du Lac last night. The doctor was in North Fond du Lac on business and slipped through a defective sidewalk in the darkness and fell in such a manner as to break the joint of the right hand in a most painful manner. He set the break himself and immediately came home for medical treatment.

PRETTY WEDDING WAS HELD TODAY

Happy Couple Start on Life's Voyage Amid Best Wishes of Friends.

A pretty wedding was celebrated this morning at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rathenram, 56 Linn street. In the presence of the nearest relatives Rev. Mr. Denison performed the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Lillian Rathenram and Mr. William S. Harvey. A three-course luncheon was served after which the young couple left on the 9:20 train for Chicago which will be their future home. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rathenram. She is a graduate of the Janesville high school and is a young lady of many accomplishments. Mr. Harvey who is an employee of the C. & N. W. R. Y. has many friends in Janesville where he formerly resided.

PICNIC DATE FOR JULY NOW FIXED

Beloit and Janesville Veterans Will Hold Their Annual Gathering.

Arrangements are being made for the annual picnic to be given by Beloit and Janesville Post and Corps on July 14 at Hono-nogah park. The affair will be for the veterans, their families, the members of the W. R. C., Sons of Veterans and other patriotic societies. The session of the Rockford Post last night was an unusually interesting one. The matter of the picnic with the Beloit and Janesville Posts sent a visiting delegation from this city and the local city to extend the invitation, set the date and co-operate with the local post. The party was composed of L. E. Moseley, commander of the L. H. D. Crane Post of Beloit; R. W. Scott, post commander and Comrades Joseph L. Bear, J. H. Lee and E. O. Kimberley of Janesville. Each of the visitors assisted in extending the invitation to the picnic.

WILL DULY PAY REQUIRED HONORS

THE FOURTH THIS YEAR TO BE CELEBRATED

IN A MOST FITTING MANNER

Committee Meeting Last Night Was Very Enthusiastic—Great Plans Laid.

Have you subscribed for the Fourth of July celebration? If not, be sure and see that your name is down on the list of subscribers for a celebration that will make the pristine celebration of this year pale with envy. It is to be a glorious day and a wonderful celebration. From the moment that the Non-Such Brothers' circus head canvasser reaches the show grounds until the last wagon leaves the show grounds at night there is to be one grand and glorious day for young and old. The Non-Such Brothers have promised a parade that will eclipse any former "parades" ever seen in Janesville. Cages of wild and untamable beasts, mammals, trapped dogs and those that are not, clowns, wild west rough riders, bareback riders, striped zebras from the wilds of the stone quarry, eagles from their eyrie, buffaloes all tagged eleven cents, wild men and tame ones, tandems and four horses, coon singers and bands, revolutionary soldiers and every day citizens—they will all be there. This is the promise of the Non-Such Brothers and those who are personally acquainted with the famous brothers know they make good their promises if the citizens help them.

A Sure Go
The celebration is a sure go now. The sentiment at the committee meeting last night was unanimous in favor of tearing off a big chunk of good money on the Fourth and the more money subscribed the bigger and better the celebration. L. F. Wortendyke is treasurer of the event and he with a very able committee of assistants to coax the shy eagles from the pockets of the business men. The committee was at work all day today and while the result was flattering not enough was raised yet and the committee will visit you tomorrow if they did not see you today.

Enthusiastic
At the meeting last night speeches were made by C. C. MacLean, A. E. Bingham, Louis Levy, F. S. Winslow, George McKee, C. S. Putnam, T. P. McKelvie, Alderman Connell, W. P. Mayles, Robert Bostwick and others. It was voted that at least $350 should be expended for music and the following committee was appointed to look after the civic parade: C. K. M. Moore, chairman; C. C. Cruppen, Chas. Schwartz and Eugene Fish. Right here it might be interesting to read of a celebration held in Janesville fifty years ago as taken from the files of the Gazette.

The 4th of July in Janesville, 1854
Notwithstanding the excessive hot weather a few days previous to the Fourth, our citizens made every preparation for its proposed celebration. Notice had been given out that the several Sabbath schools would meet and enjoy a picnic for the benefit of the scholars. At 9 o'clock the several schools in the city formed into column at the different churches and marched to the academy, where they all joined into one solid column headed by the Janesville Brass band. Mr. George S. Dodge acting as marshal and president of the day. As soon as they were joined by schools from Rock, Johnson, Union, Plymouth, Center and Milton they took up a line of march, going upon different streets of the city and thence to the grove where the exercises were gone through with. The number of scholars present was something over 800, and some 1200 people in all were present. The opening prayer was made by Rev. Mr. Wood of the Methodist church; then music by the band; a short address by Rev. Mr. Thompson; singing by the scholars; address by Rev. Mr. Foster; music by the band; closing address by Rev. Mr. Douglas, and then refreshments.

We would be happy to speak of the addresses separately but space will not allow; suffice it to say that they were excellent. The whole thing passed off pleasantly and did credit to the committees who conducted the celebration. The band is deserving of much praise for the good work considering their number.

MEMBER OF THIRTY-THREE SOCIETIES

J. M. Goodell, Editor of the Fraternal Monitor, Speaks in Highest Terms of Mystic Workers.

J. M. Goodell, editor of the Fraternal Monitor which is published at Rochester, New York, in the interests of all of the fraternal societies, and J. E. Adams, editor of the Mystic Worker, published at Plano, Ill., are conspicuous visitors at the session of the supreme lodge now being held in this city. Mr. Goodell is an active member of thirty-three different orders. He said yesterday: "This is the most representative body of citizens I have met on my many convention trips this summer. This organization as connected with and a part of the Associated Fraternities of America is held in the highest esteem. The supreme secretary, Edmund Jackson, by the way, is secretary of the Associated Fraternities and he has proved to be the most valuable representative and advocate of fraternal in any of the sessions. The Fraternal Monitor will in its next issue express the sentiment that through the able work of the officers of the Mystic Workers the perpetuity of the society interests is assured. I am certain that adequate rates will be adopted and the plans proposed are worthy of the highest commendation."

Moved Into New Quarters: Alex. Russell has moved into the Ames barn at No. 17 and 21 South Bluff street. The barn has been thoroughly remodeled.

SOCIETY.

Quite a party of Janesville gentlemen spent last Sunday at Long Lake, in Chippewa county, the guest of Mr. Gates, who has a delightful summer home there. Among those in the party were M. G. Jeffris, Ogden H. Fethers, Stanley B. Smith, F. L. Jeffris, Captain Phyl Norcross.

J. F. Sweeney, wife and daughter Blanche, are expected to arrive in the city this evening. Mr. Sweeney went to New York to meet his wife and daughter, who have spent several months abroad.

Invitations are issued announcing the coming marriage of Miss Selma Buchholz and Mr. Harry Hill.

Miss Harriet Bostwick is in Madison for the jubilee, the guest of her friend, Miss Martha Pound.

Miss Anna Valentine is at Madison for the jubilee week, the guest of the Delta Gamma sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Spoon have returned from a week's visit at the St. Louis exposition.

Miss Eloise Nowlan is a guest at the Alpha Phi house in Madison for graduation week.

Miss Murchie Jackman is in Madison.

TEST VOTES FOR THE DELEGATION

Chairman Payne Writes the Orders for the National Convention.

There will be a test vote in the Wisconsin delegation to the national republican convention before the convention itself shall have passed upon the question as to who are the proper and regularly elected delegates at large from the state. This vote will be taken at a meeting of the delegation, which will be called at the Wisconsin delegation headquarters at the Auditorium hotel on Monday, June 20, the day before the national convention meets. The first question is whether the La Follette delegates at large or the regular delegates at large, headed by Senator Spooner, shall attend and vote at this meeting. Henry C. Payne, national committeeman from Wisconsin, is just issuing a notice to the members of the delegation from that state showing the necessity for this meeting. It is customary just previous to all national conventions that meetings of delegations be held on the day stated. Such notices are sent out for each delegation by the national committeemen from each state. The object of the meeting is stated in the call to be to elect the following officers for the convention, and to transact incidental business connected therewith: A member of the committees on permanent organization, on rules and order, on credentials, on resolutions, also to select a national committeeman to represent the state on the national committee, a member of the committee to notify the nominee for president, and a member of the committee to notify the nominee for vice president.

While it is expected that, before this meeting of the delegation shall be held, the national committee, in making up the temporary roll of the convention, will have passed upon the question as to the delegates at large from Wisconsin and seated one delegation or the other, it is not supposed that the action of the committee will be accepted by the defeated set of delegates as final, but the contest will be carried before the committee on credentials and also before the convention itself.

The published statement by the regular republicans of the state, which has been submitted to the national committee, has been received with much interest by Wisconsin people and others in Washington. It is regarded as a strong document, and is the key to the whole situation is locked in the claim that the regular republican convention was made up of delegates who had the proper and correct credentials from the county and district organizations. A substantiation of the fact before the national committee and convention, it is believed here, will settle the question beyond doubt that the delegates chosen by the La Follette convention are not entitled to seats.

ENJOINS DIETZ: FROM CRIMES

Court Calls Litigant Anarchist and Gives Perpetual Injunction.

Hayward, Wis., June 8.—J. W. Dietz, a Sawyer county settler, who during the last two months has defied a court injunction and a lumber company, has hung up its drive, broken up its camp and fired on and driven off officers of the law, injuring two, was perpetually enjoined from further misdeeds by Judge Parish of the circuit court. The evidence shows that the Chippewa Falls Logging and Boom company has a clear title to the use of the Hornapple dam, where it passes the Dietz land. Dietz denied this, saying he claimed title on a warranty deed. Dietz was characterized by Judge Parish as an anarchist.

TEACH BABES TO CRY IN TUNE

Mothers Should Give Proper Note to the Youngsters.

New York, June 8.—"No mother should be weak enough to allow her baby to scream off the key. She should carry a tuning fork when the child is about to begin a prolonged howl and give him the proper note." This is the recipe for domestic harmony which Mrs. Amelia Wood Holbrook gave to the Professional Women's League.

Teacher and Pupil Elapse.

Rock Island, Ill., June 8.—Franz Zedeler, who was arrested in Dubuque while eloping with Miss Florence Freister, is a prominent professor in Augustana college in this city. Miss Freister is a student of Augustana and fell in love with her teacher.

Chief Justice in Chicago.

Chicago, June 8.—Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller of the United States supreme court is at the Auditorium Annex. He is accompanied by his daughter. He said that he was in Chicago on private business.

Uneasy Over Hetty Green.

Washington, June 9.—Thaddeus McDonald is a prisoner in the city jail. He thinks Hetty Green is pursuing him.

Indo-China Cable.

Berlin, June 8.—A syndicate of German and Dutch capitalists has been organized to finance a cable from the Island of Menado, Tuna, East Indies, to the Island of Guam, and thence to Shanghai.

Johnstown Has $100,000 Fire.

Columbus, O., June 8.—The business section of Johnstown, Licking county, O., was destroyed by fire, about a dozen buildings being destroyed. The loss is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000.

Opens Springfield Library.

Springfield, Ill., June 8.—The $75,000 library given the city of Springfield by Andrew Carnegie was formally opened Tuesday night. United States Senator Cullom delivered an address.

WOULD A SUIT AT $4.75

interest you? We offer a limited number of Suits that sold for very much more money, at $4.75—Greatest bargains we ever offered in Suits for women and Misses.

All Along the Line---

On Suits Generally we are making marked reductions in prices. It's certainly a favorable time to buy a nice suit. All the new styles are here, Janesville's most complete stock.

Wash Skirts---

At such figures as $1.00, 1.75, 2.00, 3.00, 4.00 one can buy a plain linen skirt or one with rows of insertion set in or otherwise trimmed. They are marked down, but there is nothing the matter with them, just trying to reduce stock.

SILK GLOVES are liable to be scarce a little later in the season. We have the Amsterdam Silk Gloves, 2 clasp, with double finger tips. The big demand is for black or white, although some colors are selling. Prices 50c and 75c.

A SILK TAFFETA GLOVE that we sell for 50c is some heavier than the all silk, wears well, colors black and white, 2 clasp.

THE MILANESE LISLE GLOVES Silk finish, 2 clasp, colors white, mode, grey are popular. Price, 50c.

ALL LINEN GLOVES 2 clasp, embroidered back, that launder nicely, white and black, fine quality, 60c.

At 25c we show Fine Cotton Super Lisle Gloves, 2 clasp, extra value, white, black grey, mode.

At 75c and $1.00 elbow length silk gloves, excellent grades, black and white.

SILK MITTS These we show at 25c, 37 1-2c, 50c and 75c, black and white.

HEAVY SILK LACE MITTS beautiful white and black at $1.50 and $2 elbow length

MISSSES' SILK TAFFETA GLOVES In white, tans, modes, 25c.

Amsterdam Heavy White Silk Mitts beautiful fancy embroidered backs, elbow length at $1.50, Same style in gloves at $1.75, Very Dressy.

"Moneybak" Black Silk--- A Black That Is as Permanent as the Pyramids.

Years of painstaking efforts were passed in perfecting "Moneybak" Silks. The first blacks dyed by the makers of "Moneybak" five years ago were brown compared with the rich and lustrous dyes of today.

Moreover, "Moneybak" black does not crack, turn green or grow rusty with age, and stands next to velvet for luster and brilliancy. There is an unequaled guarantee that goes with "Moneybak" Silk, for the reason that its production means the highest standard of quality of raw silk with throwing, weaving and dyeing carefully watched at every step, and its gets it.

There is a place for "Moneybak" Silk in our stock because it occupies a field of its own, does not displace the sale of cheaper silks, which we carry for customers who want them. Inquire at the silk counter. Not genuine unless the name "Moneybak" is attached to selva.

19 in. Taffeta, $1.00. 27 in. Taffeta, $1.50. 21 in. Peau de Sole, $1.25

Will You Make The Trip?

THE GAZETTE opens the way for an energetic man to enjoy all the good things of a week's outing at the World's Fair, St. Louis. His wife goes, too, and no expense for either one, not even the loss of time.

A little time spent in looking up new subscribers and in prevailing upon the old ones to pay in advance is all that is necessary.

Vim, pluck, perseverance, will win this plum. Start now, today, with a determination to win and there is little doubt but that you will have the driver's seat in the band wagon. The early bird catches the worm, and the early start gives you a decided lead hard for the other fellow to get past.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

The popularity of the candidate is to be determined by the number of votes cast for him.

Premiums---In addition to the regular schedule, new subscriptions will secure premiums when paid in advance, as follows:

One month paid in advance, 100 votes.

Three months paid in advance, 400 votes.

Six months paid in advance, 1,000 votes.

One year paid in advance, 2,500 votes.

Regular Schedule---Both old and new subscribers who pay in advance and for all coupons will receive the same number of votes—that is for every cent paid in advance during this contest:

4 votes until midnight July 2nd.

3 votes until midnight July 30th.

2 votes until 10 p. m. August 31st.

1 vote for all coupons clipped from the Gazette and delivered at this office before 10 p. m. August 31st.

Cut out the Coupon each day, enter the name of your favorite and forward to the Gazette office.
